ABOUT THE COLORADO RURAL HEALTH CENTER

The Colorado Rural Health Center (CRHC) is Colorado's nonprofit State Office of Rural Health. CRHC works with federal, state, and local partners to offer services and resources to rural healthcare providers, facilities and communities. We have a diverse and inclusive statewide constituency serving organizations in every corner of the state.

MEET DEBBIE ANNE MOELLER, NP

Debbie Anne is a Colorado native, born in Glenwood Springs, graduating from Rifle High School in 1982. Debbie Anne attended the University of Colorado receiving her Bachelor's degree in Nursing in 1986. She returned to the University of Colorado and received her Master of Science degree in 1998 after working for 12 years at the Children's Hospital and Presbyterian/St. Luke's Hospital in the neonatal intensive care units. She received specialty certification in caring for children with special health care needs. This continues to be her passion. She has been a certified Pediatric Nurse Practitioner since 1998.

DebbieAnne has been the owner of Castle Valley Children's Clinic since 2002. CVCC has 2 clinic locations and 20 staff, including 2 pediatricians. This year CVCC started providing integrated behavioral health services in both locations.

In 2008 The Colorado Rocky Mountain Chapter of NAPNAP (National Association of Pediatrics, Nurse Associates & Practitioners) honored Debbie Anne with The Pioneer of the Year award. She has been awarded the Glenwood Post Independent's Local's Choice Best Pediatrician for multiple years. She was awarded the Garfield County Humanitarian of the Year in 2014. She recently joined the board of Mountain Valley Developmental Services. She has served on the PTA and Colorado Early Childhood Board for Garfield RE-2 school district. Debbie Anne is an active participant in our community, and she enjoys spending time with her 3 grown children and her husband. She loves to hike and garden.
